

REAL CHRISTIAN IS GOOD CITIZEN

Emerson E. Ballard in Address at Y. M. C. A. Says It is Not Right For Man to Profit at Expense of Other.

A fair audience listened to the address of Emerson E. Ballard yesterday afternoon in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. He spoke upon the subject of "Indirect Treason." He said in part that he was not a minister or a politician, but a plain citizen. That he did not intend to even tinge his address with bitterness but to simply issue a timely warning. He believed that themes such as this might well be given before the patrons of such an organization at such a time because there could be no complete Christian until a man was a good citizen.

After defining technical treason as found in our constitution, he said that it was a breach of allegiance, and that punishment alone does not correct it. There are two great issues in the preservation of our domain and of our ideals. Both are important. Our forefathers attempted to make possible in the early days of our history the reign of righteousness. The achievements during the 125 years since that day were our heritage and their preservation constituted our obligations. He eulogized our achievements, such as our public schools, our religious liberty, the care of our unfortunate and the abolition of slavery and said that we should be looking forward to the day when poverty and want should also be buried.

This is a time when we should measure our spiritual life. Is there no other treason? What about secret intrigues which prevent the meeting of justice in our public and private lives. These are indirect treason. It is all too true that the impression prevails, and apparently with good foundation, that he who can control the government can acquire property. No government is just when it makes it possible for men to get more than they earn. It has been stated upon good authority that at the present time there are two men in the United States who control two-thirds of its wealth. Stock gamblers, operation under legal sanction, determine what shall be the price paid our farmers for commodities, and what shall be the price to be paid by our poor for their food. There was a time when this was a prerogative of kings, but at the present time the same principle prevailed except that it was administered in a different way. And the law permits it.

The emancipation of our women was a great thing, but what shall we say to the situation which emancipated them into the sweat shop. We now have in this country 2,000,000 children under 14 years of age at work, and we sell the lives of our women and children for profit. Toll is just as necessary as talent. All men are brothers. We could get along without toll just as well as without genius, and it is not right for one man to own the other. It is wrong for one to labor and for another to enjoy the fruit.

COMES TO DEFENSE OF SOUTH BEND MINISTERS

Are Men of High Ideals and Have Accomplished Much, Says Rev.

F. K. Dougherty.

How do you stand in your city? This was the question asked by Rev. F. K. Dougherty in his Sunday morning sermon, "For What Principles Do You Stand?" He introduced his remarks by referring to a certain attorney who in a recent political speech styled South Bend clergymen as "a bunch of meat ticket hunters." He named several pastors of high standing and the work they had done in cleaning up the city, and asked his audience whether they should be spoken of in that manner, which he said was insolent and immoral.

EFFICIENCY IS A NEW IDEA IN THIS COUNTRY

Sooner People Learn It is Needed,
Quicker They Will Succeed
Says Rabbi Cronbach.

"Efficiency," said Rabbi Cronbach at the Temple Beth-El Sunday morning. "In the fullest sense of the word, is a comparatively new idea in this country. The sooner that ordinary people learn that it is one of the requirements of success the better they will be able to follow useful and industrial lives." He said it is one of the necessary things for the expansion of any enterprise. It is the mainspring of the industrial world.

There will be a meeting at the Temple Beth-El next Sunday immediately following the regular morning service to organize a choral society. This was to have been done last Sunday, but some of the members interested found it impossible to attend, and for that reason it was postponed until next week.

IS GOD'S MELTING POT

Mrs. Myron Campbell Speaks at the Y. W. C. A. Services.

Mrs. Myron Campbell's subject for her talk at the Y. W. C. A. vesper services Sunday afternoon was "America, God's Melting Pot."

She said that America was a melting pot over which God was the great Alchemist, and that His purpose for the welfare of the content of His melting pot, was that not one soul shall escape His redemptive process. She read several selections from Laura G. Craig's book, "America, God's Melting Pot."

Music was furnished by a woman's quartet composed of Mrs. E. W. Taylor, Mrs. George Fulmer, Mrs. G. Staples and Mrs. Grace Fink-Davis.

Pay your taxes now and avoid the rush; the last day is Nov. 3d. The Treasurer's office will be open Friday evenings from 7 to 9. Fred W. Martin, Treasurer.

For over 36 years Clois & Co.'s jewelry store has been the best and cheapest place to trade. It is now, 224 S. Michigan st. —Advt.
